

FORTY-FIRST ANNUAL . . LAMOILLE VALLEY FAIR

MORRISVILLE, VERMONT

AUG. 25, 26, 27, 1914

Bigger and Better Than Ever

A Bigger Cattle Exhibit

A Better Horse Exhibit

The Best Vaudeville Show

Ever seen on the Grounds

Note the Increased Price of Admission---Adults 35c, Children between 5 and 12 years 20c, Children under 5 free, Teams 25c.

Automobiles admitted to all parts of the grounds 50c. Grand Stand 25c, Reserve Seats 25c Extra.

SEND FOR PREMIUM BOOK

O. M. WATERMAN, Sec'y, Morrisville, Vermont

JOHNSON

Mrs. J. R. Hill is seemingly better. Rodney Foster is numbered among the sick. Rev. W. H. Gould is in Montpelier for a few days. Several from here went on the excursion Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Muzzey spent Sunday in Elmore. Miss Lovejoy of Hardwick is a guest of Miss Ida Perry. Mrs. Flavia Holmes is having her house repainted. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Conger were in Burlington Tuesday. Erle Holmes took a party Saturday to Lake Carmi in Franklin. Arthur Tift visited his mother, Mrs. Jos. Muzzey, last Wednesday. Mrs. M. M. Buck's house is now in quarantine for whooping cough. Dr. E. H. Scott returned home from New Hampshire Saturday night. Mrs. Wm. Leslie and Mrs. Norman Ober were in Burlington Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jamieson of Lyndonville are guests at Seth Thrasher's. Helen, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perley Mudgett, has whooping cough. Mrs. Horton Doty went to Montpelier last Wednesday to visit at Nelson Gay's. Mrs. Jaynes and family and Mrs. Mithill were in Underhill the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nichols of Hyde Park were recent guests at Frank Nichols'. Mr. and Mrs. Ira Taylor and daughter of Middlebury are guests at J. V. Barton's. J. B. Kidder of Swanton joined his family here last Saturday at Morris Hill's. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rooney of Hyde Park are visiting her brother, Frank Nichols. Mr. and Mrs. David Holmes from Massachusetts are visiting at Mrs. Flavia Holmes'. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Nye, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Farrington and Chas. Riddle were in Newport Sunday. Governor and Mrs. Stearns and Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Farrington were in Burlington last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. William Cunningham of St. Albans were guests of his sister Mrs. George Elwood Saturday. Mrs. Ed. Woodward and daughter, Margaret, went to Waterbury, Monday, to visit her sister, Mrs. Graves. O. S. Clark of Chicago and his sister, Mrs. C. Carpenter of Derby Line are guests at Miss Charity Baker's. Thos. A. R. held his regular meeting Tuesday and the Auxiliary in the evening. Refreshments were served.

Thomas & Jamieson will give a moving picture entertainment Saturday evening, Aug. 5, at the opera house.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Scott were in Montgomery from Saturday until Monday, and in Burlington last Thursday.

Mrs. Anna Pearl accompanied little Kenneth Partlow to his home in Hardwick last Saturday and returned Monday.

Mrs. F. G. Bicknell and children returned to Chester Tuesday, after a visit to Mr. Bicknell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bicknell.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Griswold went to the Mary Fletcher Hospital Monday, where the former went for treatment for an injured hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Gallup of Burlington were guests at R. H. Rogers' the first of the week, as were also Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jenkins of Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Emery of Eden have been guests of her sister, Mrs. Homer Koeeland; also Miss Josie Mudgett of North Hyde Park.

Miss Helen Fullington went to Burlington on Monday to visit at Wallace Holmes'. Her cousin, Mary Fullington, will return home with her.

Harmony Pomona Grange will meet with Johnson Grange Wednesday, August 5, for an all day's meeting. The afternoon will be open to the public. A large attendance is desired.

Mrs. William Cowan of Wolcott is ill at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Whitney. Mrs. Cowan has been at the Fanny Allen hospital for an operation but was not strong enough to endure an operation at the present, and is waiting to be able to be cared for in Hyde Park.

Miss Etta Waters entertained her Sunday school class last Thursday afternoon at her home. Officers were elected as follows: President, Florence Barrows; Vice President, Helen Fletcher; Secretary and Treasurer, Margaret Hazen. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent. Refreshments of cake, ice cream and lemonade were served.

Ober Hill

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Lambert were in Hyde Park Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dezaine of Johnson were guests at J. E. Jones' Sunday.

The Parker & Stearns mill finished sawing the spring stock of logs Wednesday.

Mrs. Harry Baker and Mrs. Robin Miller of Johnson were at A. W. Lanpher's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Merton Wright and son Joslyn were auto visitors at Camp Joslyn Sunday.

Wilmer Bidwell had a break down Wednesday night: "lots of fun at Pinne-gas's wake."

STOWE

F. J. Holden is in Landgrove for a few days.

J. L. Stafford is on a fishing trip to Orleans County.

The Memorial Building is being wired for electric lights.

A son was born, July 24, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Harris.

H. W. Burnham is confined at home by an attack of rheumatism.

Mary Stebbins is at home from Castleton for the summer vacation.

Golden Montgomery was a business visitor in Montpelier Tuesday.

Nawell Bigelow of Salem, Mass., is spending a few weeks with relatives here.

Dr. P. E. McSweeney and family of Burlington were visitors here over Sunday.

Mrs. Wilson Edgerton of Minneapolis is spending the week with Stowe relatives.

A. A. Pike and family enjoyed an auto trip to Willoughby Lake the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Moody of Montpelier were guests over Sunday at C. E. Burt's.

Mrs. McKinley of Newbury is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Robinson, at Moscow.

J. L. Stafford spent a portion of last week with relatives in Burlington and Jonesville.

A party of a dozen young people go to Lake Elmore Saturday and will spend a week in camp.

Elton Magoon of Swanton is with his parents in Stowe Hollow.

Mrs. Jessie Gibbs Marshall of Barre has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gibbs.

Mrs. Lawrence Wright and daughters of Danvers, N. Y., visited at T. O. Wright's last week.

Mrs. Nancy Downer has gone to Schenectady, N. Y., to spend a few months with her son, John Downer.

Mrs. J. F. Flannagan and sons of Portsmouth, N. H., are spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Luce.

Mrs. Maud Scofield and children returned Monday from a two weeks' visit with relatives in Littleton, N. H.

Benton and Edward Harris were called home from Sugar Hill, N. H., last week by the illness and death of their brother.

Mrs. C. D. Bruce spent Sunday with her husband at the Mary Fletcher Hospital. Mr. Bruce is progressing as well as could be expected.

J. A. Carins of Brooklyn, N. Y., has purchased Geo. Chapin's dairy farm west of the village. This is one of the best farms in town. Mr. Carins has immediate possession.

Mrs. Mabel Carr Cornwell of Elmira, N. Y., is in town to attend the marriage of Miss Barbara M. Burt and Leo Moody of Minneapolis, which occurs Monday afternoon, Aug. 3.

E. C. Scribner and O. S. Stygles were in Burlington Monday arranging a transfer of the Grand Union Tea Co. agency to Mr. Stygles. Mr. Scribner, who has been the local agent for several years, will give personal attention to his farm.

The listers meet Saturday, Aug. 1, to listen to those aggrieved by the recent real estate appraisal. A large proportion of the real estate owners through the town found to their joy that their property had increased in value while they slept.

Justice Watts heard the cases of Louis Greenough and Oscar McCall, charged with the illegal sale of intoxicating liquor last Thursday; State's Atty Maurice for the state and Hon. F. G. Fleetwood for the defendants. Greenough was discharged for want of evidence and McCall held for county court, bail being furnished by W. F. Churchill.

Rev. H. L. Canfield of Woodstock and two boys, ten and sixteen years of age, were last Saturday on the Long Trail while going from Camel's Hump to Mt. Mansfield, and after spending the night at an abandoned farm on Cotton brook in Waterbury, reached Stowe Sunday. They did not suffer from hunger as they were well supplied with food. Sunday night they had their meal inside for the first time in two weeks.

Mrs. Harold C. McMahon gave a party to 16 young married ladies Friday evening in honor of Miss Barbara Burt, who is soon to be married to L. H. Moody of Minneapolis. A delightful supper was served at four tables. The color scheme of decorations and menu was pink and white. Pink and white carnations formed the centerpiece of each table. During the supper there was music on the piano and violin by Miss Ruth McMahon and Donald M. McMahon. During the evening Miss Burt was given a shower of gifts from the ladies present. The gifts, which were presented with a pretty original poem, included articles of silver, hand-painted china, embroidered linen, and a gold friendship pin. Among the guests were: Mrs. H. W. Barrows, Mrs. T. A. Douglass, Mrs. G. H. Marshall, Mrs. E. G. Stafford, Mrs. F. E. Stafford, Mrs. H. E. Jenney, Mrs. L. S. Macutchan, Mrs. C. Robinson, Mrs. H. E. Pike-Mrs. W. T. Burt, Mrs. C. O. Burt, Mrs. G. A. Douglass, Mrs. D. C. Scribner of Biddeford, Me., Mrs. W. H. Faunce of Providence, R. I., and Mrs. W. W. Houston of Cleveland, Ohio.

At the meeting of the stockholders of the co-operative creamery last Saturday evening the following officers were elected:—Pres., W. L. Demeritt; Vice Pres., E. M. Houston; Sec. and Treas., M. C. Lovejoy; Trustees, L. S. Small of Morrisville, A. P. Smith, J. C. Benson.

The association has purchased the Mt. Mansfield creamery of H. W. Belden with possession the first of August.

Seven hundred cows are pledged the creamery and it is expected that there will be between 1,500 and 1,800. Milk will be brought from parts of Morrisville and Waterbury.

New Creamery for Stowe

At the meeting of the stockholders of the co-operative creamery last Saturday evening the following officers were elected:—Pres., W. L. Demeritt; Vice Pres., E. M. Houston; Sec. and Treas., M. C. Lovejoy; Trustees, L. S. Small of Morrisville, A. P. Smith, J. C. Benson.

The association has purchased the Mt. Mansfield creamery of H. W. Belden with possession the first of August.

Seven hundred cows are pledged the creamery and it is expected that there will be between 1,500 and 1,800. Milk will be brought from parts of Morrisville and Waterbury.

WOLCOTT

E. C. Judd has moved into the Mission. Freeman Charette is home from Dardby, N. H.

Miriam, son of Clare Wheeler, is ill from tonsillitis.

W. M. Parker returned to his home in Montpelier Friday.

M. J. Leach expects to visit in Burlington Thursday.

Miss Lucy Lepalme is the guest of her uncle, D. Lepalme.

Raymond Golden was home from Morrisville over Sunday.

G. M. Tillotson and wife were guests at H. Parker's Sunday.

The family of Will Heath is visiting relatives in Burlington.

Ned Davis is in Morrisville, working for George Richardson.

L. C. Udall has been in Orleans for several days on business.

Levi Taylor of Stowe was a visitor in town the first of the week.

Miss Anna Frazer of Waltham, Mass., is a visitor at D. Lepalme's.

Dr. Clifford Bundy of Burlington was a recent guest at John Kelley's.

H. A. Parker and wife spent Sunday at Albert Goodrich's in Hardwick.

John Goff and family of Goffs Falls, N. H., are guests at A. W. Foster's.

Leon Lepalme and wife of Waltham, Mass., are guests of his parents here.

Mrs. Gertrude Richardson of Morrisville was a recent visitor at W. O. Davis'.

Dr. A. J. Vallee and family of Morrisville were guests at S. A. Fife's Sunday.

C. W. Jones and wife passed Sunday at the home of Orlo Youngman in Greensboro.

Mrs. A. B. Chapman of Johnson was a visitor at Mrs. Mary Tillotson's the first of the week.

Leon Benjamin and wife were in Hardwick Sunday to attend the funeral of Fred Leckner.

Henry King has moved to the Dr. Fairman house, which he recently purchased of Elmer Judd.

Dr. Morrison of Burlington was called here Tuesday to treat Herbert Preman for tuberculosis germs in the blood.

I. J. Lindsey is building a new extension to the veranda on his house. Messrs. Parker and Golden are the carpenters.

There will be a special meeting of Mineral Lodge, F. & A. M., Aug. 4 at 7:30 p. m. A full attendance is desired as there is business of importance.

Dr. Maurice de Fleury, the famous brainstorm specialist says that love is a disease and can be cured exactly as typhoid fever is cured. But who the duce wants to recover from the only malady worth having? It is a disease, the more inoculated the better for the world.

Waterville

J. T. Stevens was a business visitor in town on Monday.

Horace Stearns was in Bakersfield on Sunday and Monday.

G. L. Storey was at home from North Hero several days last week.

Several from this place took in the excursion on Lake Champlain Tuesday.

Mrs. R. S. Pierce is visiting relatives in Nicholsonville, N. Y., for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Dow of Stowe are spending the week with friends in town.

C. F. Hulburd of Boston was a recent visitor at the home of his sister, Mrs. Edward Mann.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Parker of Burlington are spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. E. H. Shattuck.

Mrs. Edwin Leach and Mrs. W. K. Montgomery visited their mother, Mrs. Patterson, at Fairfax on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Laraway were called to St. Albans on Tuesday by the death of her granddaughter, Mrs. Roy Anderson of that City.

Garfield Road

Harvey Stowell was at home from his work in East Hardwick over Sunday.

James Jones and family of Wolcott visited relatives in this place over Sunday.

Most of the farmers in this vicinity have finished haying and report a good crop.

Fred Stowell and wife commenced work at H. A. Slayton's in Morrisville Monday.

Mrs. C. W. Jones went to Ellenburg, N. Y., the first of the week, for a visit with relatives.

Mrs. Belle Stygles of Stowe and friend, Miss Isabel Smith of Worcester, Mass., were guests at O. W. Stygles, Monday.

The gang of men who have been working on the State road, commenced work again Monday, after a two weeks' lay-off.

Among those who took advantage of the excursion on Tuesday were, Wayne Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Emerson and daughter, Blanche.

North Wolcott

W. L. Farrar visited in the place recently.

Chas. Bailey is stopping with his brother, Ben.

Grant Clark is working for Ernest Bailey.

Rev. O. M. Boutwell preached here Sunday.

Arnold Denton has bought a large work team.

Henry Miller of Albany has been visiting his brother, John.

Mrs. Charlie O'Brien went to the hospital in Hardwick Sunday.

Ernest Stoddard has returned home from the hospital and is now stopping at A. E. Woodmansee's.